Teachers will provide direct synchronous instruction (further guidance in this document). Be sure to have your Chromebook and charger on hand.

Lesson information will be accessible for students at the beginning of the synchronous learning schedule within Canvas/Google Classroom.

Any live opportunities provided to students will be recorded, or an alternative will be provided within the Canvas/Google Classroom course for students who may need to access it later.

Students are accountable for their work, and grades will be assigned. Assessments will be given, and graded (if applicable)
